

REPORT ON WORLD HUMAN RIGHTS DAY CELEBRATIONS

World Human Rights Day was celebrated on 10th December 2021, at Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda with the theme “EQUALITY- Reducing Inequalities, Advancing Human Rights”. The event was organized by the Human Rights cell, SNTC. The event was compered by Ms. Sabja. L.S of Mathematics Department. The program started with prayer by college choir in the presence of Principal, Dr. Sheeba P., Resource Person Dr. Pramod G. Nair, faculties of various departments and students.

At 10.00 am, Dr. Sheeba. P, Principal of the College inaugurated the program with a welcome speech and felicitation. She explained the importance of human rights especially, right to enjoy religious freedom & belief in the context of present global discord. She also gave the awareness of enhancing and promoting Religious Harmony & Human rights irrespective of religion, caste, sex, colour etc. and enjoy all sorts of freedom in democratic country which is ensured by Government. Avoid social, cultural, political violence, intolerance & conflicts by accepting the differences of human beings. She concluded her speech by thanking the resource person Dr. Pramod G. Nair, Associate Professor, S.N. Training College, programme co-ordinator Remya. R, Assistant Professor in Education (Mathematics) of SNTC, all faculties and students.

Next part of the program was a speech rendered by Resource Person of the program, Dr. Pramod. G. Nair. Through his speech he said Human Rights Day on December 10 remembers the day the General Assembly of the UN adopted and proclaimed the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948. Human rights in India are an issue complicated by the country's large size and population, widespread poverty, lack of proper education, as well as its diverse culture, even though being the world's largest sovereign, secular, democratic republic. He discussed his view points on various human rights violations including violence against women, child labour, inequality, discrimination, child marriage, right to education and so on. He added that human rights violations are at the root causes of conflict and insecurity which, in turn, invariably result in further violations of human rights. He concluded the speech by saying that it's for each and every individual person to assert and uphold their inalienable human rights! The program was winded up with vote of thanks by Arunima. M. J of English Department.
