

SC/ST/OBC and Minority Cell

The SC/ST/OBC and Minority Cell was established in the year 2014 with the purpose of empowering the students of these communities and bringing advantage to the students from related schemes.

Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda is committed to provide an environment that promotes diversity and respects everyone regardless of colour, religious belief or cultures. While maintaining diversity of all kinds, the college consciously ensures protection of everyone including minorities, as per the provisions of constitution of India in such matters. In order to create a healthy environment where all students feel safe and respected, there is an SC/ST/OBC and Minorities Cell actively functioning in the college.

Objectives of the SC/ST/OBC and Minorities Cell

1. To implement the reservation policy for SC/ST/OBCs as per University's Guidelines in the college.
2. To collect data regarding the implementation of the policies in respect of admissions in the colleges.
3. To take follow-up measures for achieving the objectives and targets laid down for the purpose by the Government of India and the UGC.
4. To implement, monitor and evaluate continuously the reservation policy in colleges. To plan measures for ensuring effective implementation of the policy and programme of the Government of India.
5. To enhance equal opportunities for education of minorities.
6. To make the minority students aware of various scholarships of State Government and UGC.
7. To encourage enrolling for career orientation programmes which would empower and equip them with the necessary skills to choose career options.
8. To ensure protection and reservation as provided in the constitution of India.

The SC/ST/OBC and Minority Cell provides comprehensive preventive and proactive services to all such students enrolled for various academic programmes in the college. The goal of the cell is to enhance the psychological well being of SC/ST/OBC and Minority students at Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda, so they can take full advantage of the educational opportunities at the college.
