Eventhough the official inaguration was on November 1st, the union activites started before the inaguration . As a proud citizens of India the college union feel immense proud to conduct various cultural programmes on Independece day. Cultural programmes carried the spirit of patriotism, respect of freedom fighter and love for mother Nation.

Kerala witnessed the devastating effect of flood of the century. Under the union leadership, we were able to collect relief materials and supplied those materials to Idukki and Wayanad distriicts in the first phase. The end flash of flood suddenly arrived again and inorder to share the sorrow of our fellow beings. The union decided to cancel all onam celebrations. The union decided to relese a fund of Rs.10000 from union fund for helping the victims affected by the flood. In the second phase of flood relief activity the students collected necessary materials and was able to distribute in the flood affected areas directly.

In order to celebrate the Teacher's Day on September 5 the student teachers took the role of teachers on that day to highlight the role of a good teacher. On October 2nd the union decided to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti. As part of Gandhi Jayanthi celebration, various cultural activities and campus cleaning was done. Keeping the spirit of simplicity and humbleness a small meal was prepared in the college by the students.

Based on Kerala university declaration, the college conducted union election in October 9 and on the same day union representatives took oath. With the co-operation of college union the college decided to commemorate R.Sankar, the founder of S.N Trust on November 5th. The official inauguration of college union and arts club "Dhwani" was on November 1st, Mr. Ashok Kumar IPS (Trivandrum Rural SP) and the famous orator and writer, Noufal were the chief guests for the inaugural function. The function was presided by union chairman Manu.J. Under the leadership of college union, different programmes were conducted. In order to highlight the importance of gender equality a mixed gender cricket tournament was conducted.

'Kalanilavu' the arts fest was organized on February 15th and 16th and for the 2 days, the college was filled with the moonlight of art and various cultural programmes. More than 50 programmes were performed in these two days. After the fruitful completion of events of art fest, Arunnath and Reshma. J.P won the title of Kalathilakam and Kalaprathibha respectively.

February 26th was really a proud day for college union. The college was able to keep its promise of hosting an educational seminar. A state level seminar named "Artistry in the making of prospective teaching" with the collaboration of Council for Teacher Education. The inauguration of seminar was done by Dr.L. Thulasidharan, Principal SNC Varkala. The welcome speech was done by Dr.Rani, in the presidential address given by Sri.Manu.J, the resource person of the seminar was Dr.Alexander Jacob.I.P.S. The seminar was a huge success and was able to open a new perspective on teaching. The college tour took place on March 1,2 and 3 under the coordination of college union.

It's really a proud moment to coordinate and ensure participation of our college in all Kerala B.Ed fest titled as "Rangolsav". We secured the 10th position among 41 colleges. The college union showed its love and respect to seniors by organising a grand sendoff. The sendoff ended with watery eyes and full of vibrant emotions.

The union concluded its one year long journey and responsibilities with sincerity and commitment. The union concluded their official responsibilities and duties on the valedictory function inaugurated by Prof.V.S.Lee, Principal, Sree Narayana Guru College of Advanced Studies, Sivagiri.
