"Memories are always invisible to eyes but can be felt with heart."

Michelle C. Ustaszkeski

As the years go passing by, memories that are heavenly, lie deep in the lap of Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda. Memories may fade as the years go by but they won't age a day. Memoriter is a collection of our beautiful memories and our life changing moments that we have experienced in SNTC, Nedunganda. Our eminent college is always at the forefront in academic excellence and extra-curricular activities. English Association under the guidance of our beloved teacher Dr. Reetha Ravi H, (Asst. Professor, SNTC), has always contributed to augment the achievements of the college. Our teacher was always an inspiration for us and through her encouragement, we were able to organize and conduct diverse programmes during the years 2016-2017. Our teacher's motivation has paved a way for us to become good teachers as well as good humans.

RETREAT (23/06/2016)

Retreat is an opportunity to highlight the abilities and talent of students. It is an occasion to interact between the students and teachers and there by the teachers are able to understand the feelings, fears and ambitions of the students. The programme was scheduled in Kumaranasan's Monument at Thonnakkal. It was a programme of refreshment and educative value.

Onam Celebration

07/08/2016

We celebrated the Onam festival well. Class rooms were decorated with flowers. Traditional Onam feast was arranged at college auditorium. We had enjoyed the feast with friends and teachers. Onam programme like flower arrangement competition, music chair competition and tug of war were conducted. All of us actively participated in the Onam celebration.

Field Trip to Vizhinjam (26/08/2016)

As a part of B.Ed curriculum, we conducted a field trip to Vizhinjam so as to develop the aesthetic sense, imagination and creativity among students. It helped to mould us to be effective teachers. Both the students and the optional teachers participated in the field trip.

As You Like It 6/09/2016

The Department of English presented the drama 'As You Like It' written by William Shakespeare in the stage. We acted well. We were able to rouse a general awareness and taste for enjoyment of drama among the audience. All the teachers and the students of every department were the spectators.

Exhibition (15/09/2016)

The Department of English organized an exhibition as a part of extra curricular activities. We arranged important novels, collection of poems, cartoons and magazines for the exhibition. It was to encourage the reading habits among students.

Art's Festival 16/10/2016 to 20/10/2016

The purpose of the Arts day is to highlight students' creative ambition and drive to give them a chance to showcase their hard work. Arts festival of the year 2016-2017 was conducted from Oct 16 to Oct 20 in the college auditorium and was inaugurated by the college principal. There were many programmes. Students participated in group dance and group song competitions and secured prizes.

Thought For the Week

Participation actively engages students with the subject matter, pushes them to create concepts and forces them to show evidence for their claims. Thought for the day programme in B.Ed colleges is such an activity to enhance student's participation. The topic selected for that was 'A protection for Mother Earth' that deals with causes and problems of pollution and how it affects our earth. The programme was on the third week of June and students actively participated and expressed their ideas.

Literary Magazine

Making a magazine is like taking some time out from regular classes and doing something creative. Student teachers of 2016-2017 published a class Literary Magazine consisting of poems, short stories, essays, write ups related to contemporary issues that were contributed by all the student teachers in the class and their hard work made the literary magazine fruitful. Literary magazine was published by the college principal in the morning assembly .
